your help

WHO WE ARE

The Friends of the Tinley Park Public Library embrace the library we love, support the community we live in, and believe that a good public library is vital to the intellectual, cultural, and social growth of our community.

THE FRIENDS NEED BOOKS

Donate your gently-used books at the Checkout Desk. We especially need hardcover novels, history, cooking, and children's books. However, we do not accept textbooks, encyclopedias, outdated reference books, VHS tapes, magazines, or Reader's Digest Condensed Books. Your donations support the Friends' efforts and may be used in our gift package creations.

GIFT PACKAGES SALE

Sat, Nov 2 • 9 am–4 pm

The popular Friends' gift packages are the perfect gift for the booklover on your list. And what's the best part? They're all wrapped up and ready to give. A variety of themes and age ranges will be available.

Early Literacy Tips

Talk

Children learn about language by listening to parents talk and joining the conversation.

Sing

Singing slows down language so children can hear the different sounds within words.

Read

Reading together develops vocabulary and motivates children to learn to read.

Write

Show your child written words. They will learn that printed letters stand for spoken words.

Play

Playing helps children put thoughts into words and talk about what they are doing.

Coming This Fall

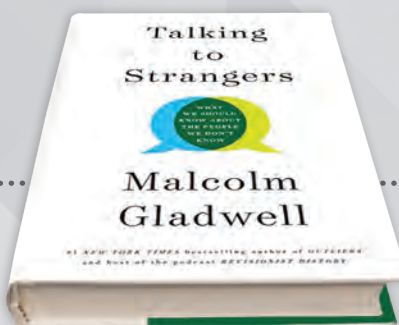

BLUE MOON

by Lee Child

“In the next highly anticipated installment of Lee Child’s acclaimed suspense series, Jack Reacher comes to the aid of an elderly couple—and confronts his most dangerous opponents yet.”

— GoodReads.com

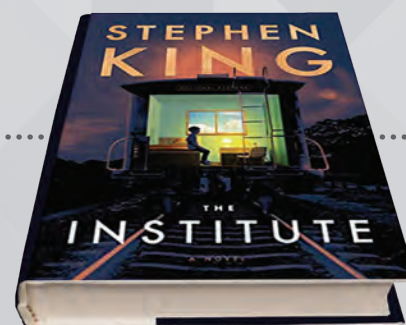

TALKING TO STRANGERS

by Malcolm Gladwell

“Through a series of puzzles, encounters and misunderstandings, from little-known stories to infamous legal cases, Gladwell takes us on a journey through the unexpected.”

— GoodReads.com

THE INSTITUTE

by Stephen King

“As psychically terrifying as Firestarter, and with the spectacular kid power of It, The Institute is Stephen King’s gut-wrenchingly dramatic story of good vs. evil in a world where the good guys don’t always win.”

— GoodReads.com
