Take 2: Documentary Film Series

Saturdays at 1 pm

No registration required

Shift your focus from traditional filmmaking and introduce yourself to new topics with these award-winning documentaries. While not locally made, these stories may give us a greater perspective on subjects outside our own experiences. Feel free to stay afterward and chat with other attendees about the films.

December 30 – Score: A Film Music Documentary

93 minutes

Hollywood's elite composers come together to give viewers a privileged look inside the musical challenges and creative secrecy of the world's most international music genre: the film score.

January 20 – Just Eat It: A Food Waste Story

73 minutes

Filmmakers Grant Baldwin and Jenny Rustemeyer turn themselves into test subjects in this entertaining study of America's culture of excess.

February 17 – Maya Angelou: And Still I Rise

114 minutes

With unprecedented access, filmmakers Bob Hercules and Rita Coburn Whack trace the incredible journey of the remarkable writer, poet, actress, and activist Maya Angelou.

Oscar Fever Contest

February 3 – March 3
Get your acceptance speech ready when you correctly predict who will bring home Oscar gold at the upcoming 2018 Academy Awards.

Our annual contest begins Saturday, February 3 and ends on Saturday, March 3 at 5 pm. Ballots and additional details available in the library and on our website closer to the event.

CELEBRATING BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Join us for the documentary film screening of Maya Angelou: And Still I Rise
Saturday, February 17 at 1 pm.

"My mission in life is not merely to survive, but to thrive; and to do so with some passion, some compassion, some humor, and some style."

Maya Angelou
Author, Poet,
Pulitzer Prize Nominee,
Civil Rights Activist
1928—2014
