Throughout my life, reading has always been my passion. Even at my advanced age, I remember as if it were yesterday the day I got my first library card. I was told that if I could write my name, I would receive my first card.

There has never been a time in my life when I have been without one since.

I only wish that parents today could realize what a gift a love of reading can be. Regular trips to the local library can be a treat and a way of spending quality time together.

Starting out on the lap of a parent, being read to, creates a bond. In my case, besides library books, my dad read the comics to me. I have to admit I still love Charlie Brown.

Subscribing to a daily newspaper in the home can help children be more aware of current events. Seeing parents read is a subtle method of role modeling. Wise grandparents I know give subscriptions to children's periodicals. Wish I had thought of that!

If a child reads well, he or she will do well in school and will never be bored or lonely.

My frustration now is that there are so many things to read and just not enough time!

Book Discussion Groups

*** NEW |*| NEW |*| NEW ***

Movies&Books

In August, we'll begin hosting a new program called Movies&Books. Come watch our selected movie each month, read the book, and return a few weeks later to chat about which was better – the movie or the book! Discussion books will be available to check out immediately following the movie screening; afterwards, copies will be kept at the Adult Reference Desk. Feel free to attend the screening, the discussion, or both. No registration is required; however, seating at the movie screening is limited to 125. Our program kicks off in August with the following schedule:

Silver Linings Playbook; 122 minutes, Rated R

Movie: Saturday, August 3 at 1 pm MR A & B

Book Discussion: Thursday, August 22 at 7:30 pm
Meeting Room A

Tinley Tomes

Tinley Tomes comprises two groups that discuss a variety of fiction and nonfiction books. One group meets at 1:30 pm on the second Wednesday of the month and the other at 7:30 pm on the fourth Tuesday. Titles are available at the Adult Reference Desk in hardcover, large print, and audio formats one month before the discussion date. All discussions will be held in Meeting Room A except for our June 25 session which will be held in the Young Adult Program Room.

Tuesday Tomes Selections – 7:30 pm

June 25

We Need to Talk About Kevin by Lionel Shriver
From the time of his birth, Kevin Khatchadourian seems different, refusing to bond with his loving parents, who deny all signs that something is wrong until the advent of their sweet-tempered second child renders the sibling contrast too great. As Kevin grows into a creepily vicious adolescent, the reader's sense of impending danger is heightened. Is there such a thing as a "bad seed" or are Kevin's parents to blame? Published a decade ago, We Need to Talk About Kevin remains one of the best novelistic explorations of the psychopathic child.

July 23

The Strangers on Montagu Street by Karen White
As a favor to her friend Jack, Melanie Middleton has taken in his estranged daughter, 13-year-old Nola. Melanie also happens to be a psychic Realtor, so when Nola's dollhouse begins to show signs of a malevolent presence, Melanie is just the person to deal with the spirits involved. Elements of southern history, romance, and the supernatural keep the reader engaged.

August 27

2030: The Real Story of What Happens to America by Albert Brooks. In 2030, cancer is cured, there's a pill for obesity, and everyone's living far too long. Then comes the earthquake that devastates L.A.— and comic novelist Brooks takes it from there.

For more information about Tinley Tomes, Book with Buzz, or Movies&Books, call the Adult Reference Desk at 708.532.0160, x 1.

Wednesday Tomes Selections – 1:30 pm

June 12

Magnificence by Lydia Millet

A woman adrift after her husband's death inherits a mansion and a vast collection of taxidermy. Wondrous and absurd, funny and heartbreaking, Magnificence grapples with themes of evolution, extinction, loss, and revelation. Lydia Millet was nominated for a Pulitzer for her previous novel Love in Infant Monkeys.

July 10

Old School by Tobias Wolff

Set at an elite prep school in the early 1960s, Tobias Wolff's homage to the power of literature centers on an annual writing competition—a competition whose prize is a private audience with Robert Frost, Ayn Rand and Ernest Hemingway. A deceptively quiet novel about morals, ethics, and the gray areas that cloud our judgment.

August 14

Home Front by Kristin Hannah

Reserve Army helicopter pilot Jolene Zarkades and her husband Michael are already having marital problems when she learns that she is being deployed to Iraq. Knowing that her husband and two young daughters bitterly resent her absence only adds to Jolene's stress. Months later, Jolene returns from the war a changed person. In Home Front, Kristin Hannah once again explores the depths of complex relationships as one family struggles to put its life back together.
