September is Library Card Sign-up Month

Love Your Library? Tell a Friend!

During the month of September, we are excited to sponsor a brand-new referral program. If you have friends, family, or co-workers who don't know about the amazing services we offer our patrons, tell them about us! Here's how it works:

- Next time you are in the library, show your Tinley Park Library card at the Checkout Desk and pick up some referral cards.
- Fill out the cards with your contact info and give them to family, friends, and coworkers who live in Tinley Park or Orland Hills.
- For every new TPPL card referral, YOU are entered into a special prize drawing for a family pass to the Shedd Aquarium, a $150 Tin Fish gift card, or a $50 Best Buy gift card.
- New cardholders who present a referral card are entered into a separate drawing for a chance to win one of the following: a gift card to Gatto's, Parmesans Station in Tinley Park, or an iPad mini!
- All current and new Tinley Park Public Library cardholders who show their library card at the Checkout Desk will receive a prize.
One per patron, please.
- Bookmobile patrons may participate as well.
- Our thanks to the Friends of the Library, Gatto's, and Parmesans Station for their generous donations.

Your referral means the world to us! Providing our community with excellent opportunities and resources to read, learn, and grow is our top priority.

Check Out Our NEW Look!

Patrons who sign up for a new card, renew their current one, or want to replace their old one, will now receive our newly-designed library card. Application and proof of residency will be required.

Periodically Speaking

Like to read magazines? Every year, we add new titles to our collections upstairs and down. New to the junior magazine collection are Disney Frozen and Marvel Super Heroes, both bimonthly. Adult titles include Bark (about—guess what?—dogs), Dr. Oz: The Good Life, Military History, and Mindful. For those who prefer digital magazines, the library subscribes to Zinio. Unlike library ebooks, Zinio issues may be downloaded and kept forever—or until you choose to delete them from your device. Visit tlibrary.org/borrow/emagazines or download 'Zinio for Libraries' to your Android, Apple device or Kindle Fire HD/HDX.

Shredding Event

Saturday, September 24 from 9-11 am
The Friends of the Tinley Park Library will sponsor a shredding event in the West parking lot of the 80th Avenue Metra Station. The West parking lot is located north of the train tracks at 179th Street & 80th Avenue. A maximum of two standard-sized paper boxes filled with your sensitive papers (bank statements, bills) is allowed. Approximate dimensions: 16" x 8" x 12". Shredding representatives will remove the boxes from your car, take them to the shredding truck, and shred them onsite. Thank you to the 500+ who attended our April shredding event.

Gift Packages on Sale Saturday, November 5 from 9 am-4 pm

Looking for stress-free holiday shopping?

Look no further. The Friends' gift packages are the solution -- all wrapped up and ready to give. A variety of themes and age ranges will be available, from golf to cooking and from child to adult. There's something for everyone! The sale will be held in the Main Level Meeting Room of the library.

Love Grows by Giving

Friday, November 18 through Monday, December 12. The library is proud to announce that we will be a drop-off point for the following local organizations:

Toys for Tots

Donation boxes are located in the YS Department.

Crisis Center for South Suburbia

The Crisis Center Wish List will be available in our lobby and our website beginning November 1.

Tinley Park Food Pantry

The Food Pantry will be glad to receive non-perishable and non-expired food items.

Together We Cope

TWC in Tinley Park is collecting toys and gift cards for youngsters aged infant to 18 for the nonprofit agency's annual Adopt-a-Child Christmas program, which this year will provide holiday gifts for 1500 area children in need.

TEDx

TinleyParkLibrary

x = independently organized TED event

Coming October 12

You've heard of TED, the nonprofit global phenomenon devoted to spreading innovative ideas and sparking dynamic discussions.

A TEDx event is a local version of TED—a community-planned series of conversations on multiple issues, featuring a diverse range of voices.

The Tinley Park Library is pleased to host its first-ever TEDx event at 7 pm Wednesday, October 12. Light refreshments will be served. Registration opens September 20 and is limited to 100.

Come and hear:

Nancy Depcik, Motivational keynote speaker and founder of Unshakable Success™
"Breathing Happiness"

Loretta Downs, Hospice Ambassador and founder of Chrysalis™
"The Mysterious Metamorphosis at the End of Life"

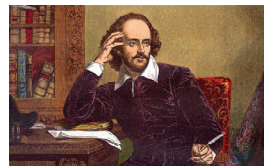

Garrett Gray, award-winning speaker, artist, and professional engineer
"Life Lessons From My Cat, Mr. T"

Amber Holup, Development Assistant at The Bridge Teen Center and Olivet Nazarene University freshman
"Find Purpose Through Service"

Be inspired by these fascinating speakers; be energized by the conversation generated from their ideas. Join us for this groundbreaking experience!

Celebrating Shakespeare

2016 marks 400 years since the death of playwright William Shakespeare. The Bard's legacy is still strongly felt around the world, with his influence upon the English language and popular culture showing no signs of waning.

Join us for three exciting programs presented by independent teacher and lecturer John Nygro: 'Richard III' on Monday, September 19 at 7 pm, 'Shakespeare's Women' on Monday, October 24 at 11 am, and 'Shakespeare: The Winter's Tale' on Monday, November 21 at 7 pm. Register for each program separately.

Motoring West with Frank Lloyd Wright

Wednesday, September 14 at 7 pm

In late 1934, an entourage of architecture students and their teacher, Frank Lloyd Wright, escaped an especially harsh Wisconsin winter by taking a trip to Arizona. Historian Dave Clark examines Wright's annual pilgrimage across our country's highways, including Route 66, and shows us the iconic structures he built along the way.

Richard III

Monday, September 19 at 7 pm

The recent discovery of the remains of the historical King Richard III has sparked a re-evaluation of his true character. Independent teacher and lecturer John Nygro compares factual information about Richard's physical body and contemporary accounts of his personality with Shakespeare's portrayal of him as a malformed, evil manipulator.

Adult Book Discussion Groups

Tinley Tomes

Tinley Tomes comprises two groups that discuss a variety of fiction and nonfiction books. One group meets at 1:30 pm on the second Wednesday of the month and the other at 7:30 pm on the fourth Tuesday. Selections are available at the Adult Reference Desk in hardcover, large print, and audio formats one month before the discussion date. Unless otherwise noted, discussions are held in Meeting Room A.

Tuesday Tomes Selections—7:30 pm

September 27

Eligible: A Modern Retelling of Pride and Prejudice by Curtis Sittenfeld

You don't have to be a Jane Austen fan to enjoy this hilarious re-imagining of her classic comedy of manners. Transposed from eighteenth-century England to contemporary Cincinnati and New York, this modernized tale features CrossFit workouts, Paleo diets, and other trappings of 21st-century life. What abides, however, is Mrs. Bennet's obsession with marrying off her daughters to eligible men.

October 25

The Atomic Weight of Love by Elizabeth J. Church

It's 1941, and budding ornithologist Meri Wallace sacrifices her career plans to follow her physicist husband from Chicago to Los Alamos, where he is engaged in secret work on the atomic bomb. As the decades pass, Meri struggles to reconcile her passion for science with the expectations of traditional womanhood. Church's lively historical novel explores the evolving challenges and opportunities for women in science and in public life.

November 22

A Life Apart by Neel Mukherjee

Mukherjee's debut novel weaves the tale of two outsiders: Ritwik, an undocumented Calcuttan immigrant barely eking out a living in London, and Miss Gilby, an Englishwoman in Bengal during the eve of India's first partition. The novel manages to combine the poignancy of a coming-of-age story with the rawer elements of hardcore urban fiction.

Wednesday Tomes Selections—1:30 pm

September 14

The Little Girl Who Fought the Great Depression by John F. Kasson

Amid the deprivation of the Great Depression, child star Shirley Temple radiated plucky good cheer that lifted the spirits of millions in America and beyond. Popular historian John F. Kasson explores the nature of Temple's universal appeal in this nonfiction account of one of our nation's first celebrities.

October 12

The Twelve Tribes of Hattie by Ayana Mathis

In 1923, 15-year-old Hattie Shepherd flees Georgia for the North. Full of hope, she finds only disappointment. Vowing to prepare her children for a world of pain, she raises them with courage, strength, and not one ounce of the tenderness they crave. Their varied voices tell the story of the 20th century through the eyes of one African American family. Young Adult Program Room.

Books with Buzz

Books with Buzz, our bestselling book discussion group, meets on the third Thursday of odd-numbered months. The September 15 selection is Ransom Riggs' Miss Peregrine's Home for Peculiar Children, to be released as a movie on September 30. Check our book discussions page (tplibrary.org/events/book-discussion-groups) for the November 17 selection one month before the discussion date—or just drop by the Adult Reference Desk, where discussion books are kept. Books with Buzz meets in the Young Adult Program Room on the Upper Level.

Partners In Crime
