Library Now Open Year Round

The Tinley Park Public Library Board of Trustees is happy to announce the library will now offer Sunday hours throughout the year. The library will be open on Sundays from 12:00 noon to 5:00 p.m.

The Library Board of Trustees and staff continually strive to explore new ways to serve and respond to the needs of the community. With the increased hours of operation during the summer, the library will provide more options for people to use the library and will allow working families a chance to visit the library together.

9th Annual Holiday Gift Faire November 5 & 6

Visit your favorite home party vendors in one convenient location and begin your holiday shopping at the library! Details will be available in the fall edition of our News and Program Guide.

If you are a home party vendor and wish to participate please contact Joy Anhalt at 708.532.0160, ext. 5713.

The Friends are sponsoring their annual trip to Theatre at the Center in Munster, IN on Wednesday September 28 for the presentation of the Tony Award-winning musical and all-time favorite Guys and Dolls.

Tickets are $58 apiece, which includes bus fare, lunch at The Center, and the play. Menu information and tickets will be available at the Patron Services Desk beginning Monday, August 1. Deadline for ticket purchase is Wednesday, September 14. The bus will leave the library parking lot at 10:45 a.m. sharp and will return at approximately 5:30 p.m.

Stop by the Friends' Bookstore and browse awhile. You'll find a large selection of novels, nonfiction, paperbacks, videos, and much more.

Join the Friends!

The Friends of the Library is a fund-raising organization that benefits the Tinley Park Public Library. All proceeds from membership dues, book bag sales, Fannie May candy bar sales and bookstore purchases directly benefit the library. The Friends have purchased art work and furnishings for the library and they also sponsor our popular Sunday Afternoon Concert Series. Anyone interested in joining the Friends may obtain an application at the Patron Services Desk or use the form below.

using a trio of orphan girls as pawns for a grand scheme until he finds their love is profoundly changing him for the better.

Book Discussion Groups

Tinley Tomes

Tinley Tomes comprises two groups that discuss a variety of fiction and nonfiction. One group meets at 1:30 p.m. on the second Wednesday of the month and the other at 7:30 p.m. on the fourth Tuesday. Titles are available at the Adult Reference Desk in hardcover, large print, and CD formats one month before the discussion date.

Wednesday Tomes Selections – 1:30 p.m.

June 8

Djibouti by Elmore Leonard

Action and wit lead the way in the latest novel by master of prose Elmore Leonard. Documentarian Dara Barr and her assistant Xavier LeBo travel to the Horn of Africa to film Somali pirates. Leonard provides much of the action as exposition, with the filmmakers safe and sound in hotels or on yachts, discussing their adventures over champagne. Meeting Room A.

July 13

The Tiger's Wife by Téa Obrecht

Natalie Stefanovi was raised by her beloved grandfather on tales of the Balkan village in which he grew up. When he dies, she becomes convinced that he spent his last days searching for the "deathless man," a character from one of these tales. As Natalia struggles to understand why her grandfather, a deeply rational man, would go on such a farfetched journey, she stumbles across a clue that leads her into another extraordinary tale - the story of the tiger's wife. Meeting Room A.

August 10

Half Broke Horses by Jeannette Walls

The author of the best-selling memoir The Glass Castle returns with this "true-life novel" told from the point of view of her no-nonsense grandmother, Lily Casey Smith. Lily recalls her life on the frontier: ranching in Arizona, learning to fly a plane, and bootlegging liquor during Prohibition. This is a heartwarming story about an outspoken woman who won't quit. Meeting Room A.

Tuesday Tomes Selections – 7:30 p.m.

June 28

The Imperfectionists by Tom Rachman

Set in Rome, The Imperfectionists tells the stories of eleven of the journalists, editors, and executives who work at a fictional, English-language newspaper. The imperfections of each are highlighted to show the difference between the image individuals think they present to the world and what others actually see. Young Adult Program room.

July 26

Rich Boy by Sharon Pomerantz

Reminiscent of the early Phillip Roth, Pomerantz' debut novel traces the ascent of Robert Vishniak from a working-class Jewish neighborhood in 1970s Philadelphia to the Reagan-era Manhattan elite. Rich with period detail, this rags-to-riches tale rivets the reader. Young Adult Program Room.

August 23

The Art of Racing in the Rain by Garth Stein

The life of race car driver Denny Swift is told through the eyes of his dog Enzo. Enzo believes he is just a step away from reincarnating as a human, and he has a philosophical view of life as experienced by his master. Joys and tragedies alike are shrewdly observed and reported. Meeting Room A.

June 7

Too Late to Say Goodbye: A True Story of Murder and Betrayal by Ann Rule

Dr. Barton Corbin's wife died of a gunshot wound to the head, an apparent suicide. Further investigation reveals a girlfriend from Dr. Corbin's past died of a gunshot wound, an apparent suicide. Coincidence?

No Discussion in July

August 2

The Brass Verdict by Michael Connelly

L.A. lawyer Mickey Haller and LAPD Detective Harry Bosch join forces to solve a high-profile, double-homicide case against famed Hollywood producer Walter Elliot, who is accused of shooting his wife and her alleged lover.

Third Thursdays Reading Club

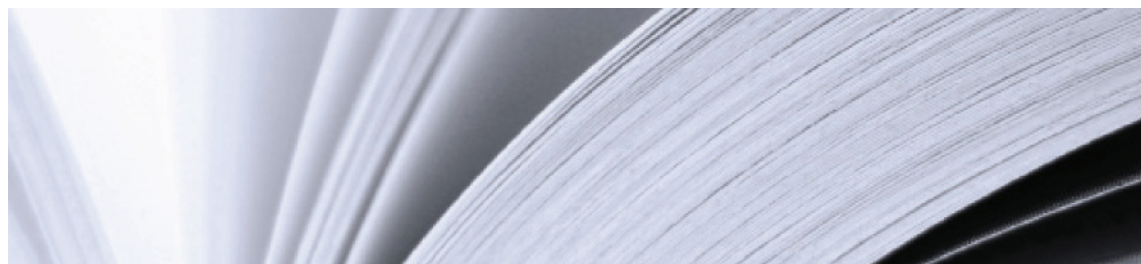

The Third Thursday book discussion group will meet once every three months in 2011 to welcome each new season.

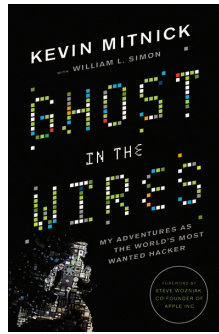

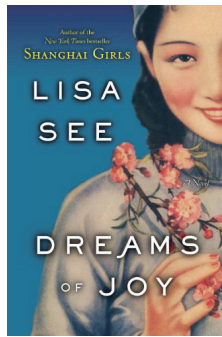

TTRC discussions begin at 7:00 p.m. in Meeting Room A. Seasonal food and drink will be provided at each gathering.

June 16

Summer Sisters by Judy Blume

This novel by best-selling author Judy Blume tells the story of the friendship between Caitlin and Victoria, who meet as schoolgirls. Though the two of them are worlds apart, Caitlin chooses Victoria as her summer guest on Martha's Vineyard. Their seasons together on the island are full of fun and laughter until passion intrudes and the friendship takes a dark turn.
