

Love Grows . . . By Giving

The library is proud to announce that we have partnered with Toys for Tots to serve as a drop-off location from now until Thursday, December 20. A donation box is located in the Youth Services Department.

Also, the library will once again be a drop-off site for your holiday donations for the following local organizations:

- Crisis Center of South Suburbia (toys, misc. personal items, children's and women's clothing)
- Tinley Park Food Pantry (non-perishable, non-expired, non-glass food items)
- Together We Cope (gift items for children and teens)

Separate boxes for each group will be located in the library lobby.
Collections run from Monday, November 26 through Friday, December 14, 2012.

News and Program Guide

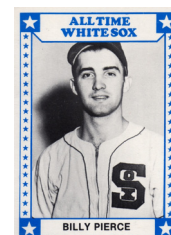

Winter 2012/2013

An Afternoon with Sox Great Billy Pierce and author John O'Donnell

Saturday, February 23 from 1:30 - 4 pm

White Sox legend Billy Pierce will be appearing with John O'Donnell, author of Like Night and Day, A Look at Chicago Baseball, 1964 - 1969. John will talk about his experiences in the world of baseball as seen through the eyes of a child. Pierce will speak about his experiences with the Chicago White Sox. The program will be followed by an autograph session with books and photos available for purchase. You may bring your own memorabilia to be signed for a small fee. This is a fundraising event, with a significant portion of the proceeds directed to Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities. This program is sponsored by the Friends of the Tinley Park Public Library.

Free Magazine Giveaway

Begins January 3 – while supplies last

The library is making hundreds of our back-issue magazines available to the public at no charge. Look for tables in our lobby and check back often since we will be adding new titles as space becomes available. Please be aware that we cannot provide a list of titles since this promotion is ongoing while supplies last.

Downton Abbey Party

Saturday, January 5 from 1 – 4 pm

It's almost time for Season 3 to begin! If you're a die-hard fan of the PBS miniseries like we are, you won't want to miss this opportunity to mix and mingle with other Anglophiles and watch the final two-hour episode of Season 2. There will be door prizes and British-style snacks, including tea, of course.

Atomic Training offers streaming video instruction on how to use 30 popular software programs, as well as the iPad. With Atomic Training, learn how to use Adobe Photoshop, several Microsoft Office applications, Apple's GarageBand, and more. For more details, visit www.tplibrary.org.

Notable Deaths, 2012

As the year draws to a close, we would like to pay our respects to the following authors who have enriched our lives:

- Jan Berenstain, co-creator of the Berenstain Bears
- Maeve Binchy, bestselling Irish novelist and playwright
- Ray Bradbury, Illinois author of the dystopian Fahrenheit 451
- Reginald Hill, prolific English crime writer
- Nora Ephron, screenwriter, novelist, and humorist
- Gore Vidal, essayist and cultural critic
- Jeffrey Zaslow, columnist and ghostwriter

Wii-U Coming Soon

The library will soon offer video games for the Nintendo Wii-U console system. Currently, we offer Wii, X-Box 360 and PlayStation 3 games in the adult, teen, and children's collections. The loan period for games is one week. In addition, holds can now be placed on all console games.

Something New Has Been Added

The Friends are now sponsoring a SPRING theater trip.

On Wednesday, May 1 we will be going to Theatre at the Center in Munster for a presentation of What a Glorious Feeling.

The show features great song and dance routines inspired by the movie Singin' in the Rain. Tickets go on sale beginning on Monday, March 11.

Tickets are $58 apiece, which includes bus fare, lunch at the Center, and the play. Menu information and tickets will be available at the Checkout Desk beginning Monday, March 11. Deadline for ticket purchase is Wednesday, April 10. The bus will leave the library parking lot at 10:45 am sharp and will return at approximately 5:30 pm.

On Wednesday, October 23 we will taking our first trip to Drury Lane, Oak Brook for a presentation of Hello Dolly. Further information will be available in the fall newsletter.

Fannie May candy bars make great stocking stuffers. Don't forget to stop by the Checkout Desk.

To all of our patrons . . .
the Friends wish you a warm and happy
holiday season and healthy new year.

If you don't have access to a computer or need help registering, visit the library and a staff member will be happy to assist you with online registration.

The Sunday Afternoon Concert Series is sponsored by the Friends of the Tinley Park Public Library. Doors open at 1:30 pm for the performance. Registrants must obtain a ticket from the registration table at least 10 minutes prior to the scheduled performance. Unclaimed reserved seating will be released 10 minutes prior to the scheduled performance.

If you have registered for a concert and are unable to attend please call the library at 532.0160, x 3 to cancel your reservation.

Thank you.

"I cannot think of a day in my life when the library didn't exert a potent attraction for me, offering a sense of the specialness of each individual's curiosity and a quest to satisfy it."

New Registration Date Procedure for Adult Programs!

In an effort to simplify registration for all our library patrons, there is a new registration date procedure being implemented for adult programs. This procedure has already been in use for all Youth Services programs and will now be used library-wide with an exception for computer classes and Friends of the Library events.

The guideline is as follows:

- Registration begins on the 20th of each month for the following month's programs.
- Register by going to www.tplibrary.org and clicking on "Programs and Events." Choose "All-Events Calendar," then click on the program you want to register for.

December 20

The Curious Case of Benjamin Button

by F. Scott Fitzgerald

Can a short story written by a classic author in the 1920s be successfully developed into an award-winning movie featuring the always handsome Brad Pitt? Join the December 20 meeting of the Third Thursdays Reading Club and find out. This group meets to discuss books and stories made into films. Clips of the movie will be shown during the meeting; the discussion will focus on the similarities and differences between the written and filmed versions.

Tinley Tomes

Tinley Tomes comprises two groups that discuss a variety of fiction and nonfiction books. One group meets at 1:30 pm on the second Wednesday of the month and the other at 7:30 pm on the fourth Tuesday. Titles are available at the Adult Reference Desk in hardcover, large print, and CD formats one month before the discussion date. All discussions are held in Meeting Room A.

Tuesday Tomes Selections – 7:30 pm

January 22

Carry the One by Carol Anshaw

A party; drinking, then driving; a life is lost. This powerful novel centers on a bad choice and its ramifications upon all of those involved.

February 26

The Sense of an Ending by Julian Barnes

A middle-aged man, average in every respect, receives a mysterious legacy that forces him to re-examine youthful relationships and decisions, with devastating psychological consequences. This award-winning novel begs to be read—and perhaps even re-read— in a single sitting.

Wednesday Tomes Selections – 1:30 pm

January 9

The Space Between Us by Thrity Umrigar

A lyrical story of two Indian women, Sera, an upper-class Parsi housewife and Bhima, her stoic and illiterate maid, whose bond goes far deeper than that of employer and employee. Their lives are intimately entwined. Yet, when circumstances cause their worlds to collide, they realize just how far apart they truly are—and the fallout is devastating for both.

February 13

Crooked Letter, Crooked Letter by Tom Franklin

A rift develops in the friendship between two small-town boys when one is suspected of murdering his sweetheart. Years later, Silas (a black constable) and Larry (a solitary white mechanic) confront each other again when another girl disappears. The languid atmosphere of a southern town is disturbed by racial tensions and the mystery at the core of this book.

Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990

The Tinley Park Public Library is subject to the requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. Individuals who require an accommodation for a disability for any library presentation should contact the library at 708.532.0160, x 3 at least ten working days prior to an event.

The Tinley Park Library staff may take photographs of participants, individually or in groups, attending or taking part in library programs and activities. These photographs may appear in future library publications or other library publicity. Library patrons may not take photographs or videos of other patrons or staff without the permission of the person(s) being photographed. Attendees and/or participants consent to having their photograph taken and used for such purposes. If a library patron does not wish himself/herself or his/her child to be photographed, the patron must notify the library staff to that effect.

A Reminder:

To avoid incurring fines, please return checked out material by the due date. Remember, many items can be renewed online or by phoning the library at 708.532.0160, x 3.
