

National Library Week

April 8 - 14

Celebrate National Library Week by attending a program, checking out a book, or using our computers. Please take a moment to tell us what you love about the library by filling out a comment card. We hope you'll join us for coffee and donuts on Wednesday, April 11 from 9:00 a.m. to noon. All week there will be an opportunity to enter a free drawing for a chance to win a gorgeous gift basket. One entry per person, please.

Join us at Discover Tinley on April 14

The library will have plenty to share with the community at Discover Tinley on Saturday, April 14 from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at the Tinley Park Convention Center. Stop by our booth, show us your Tinley Park library card, and receive an entry for a free drawing to win a great prize basket. Bring your toughest questions for the "Stump the Librarian" contest and make sure to save time for the kids to take a break in our Kids Korner.

News and Program Guide

Spring 2012

The Shark is BACK!

Friends of the Tinley Park Public Library Shredding Event.

Saturday, April 28 from 9:00 - 11:00 a.m.

Bring a maximum of two standard-sized paper boxes filled with your sensitive papers (bank statements, bills, etc.) to the shredding truck in the library's east parking lot. Shredding representatives will remove the boxes from your car, take them to the shredding truck, and shred them on site.

The shredder ACCEPTS papers, file folders, envelopes, continuous forms, and stationery.

PLEASE DO NOT DEPOSIT any of the following items: CD-ROMs, plastics, plastic bags, metals, trash, three-ring binders, diskettes, magnetic media, hazardous waste, medical waste, or hardcover books. These items contaminate the contents and render the material non-recyclable.

Ereader excitement

Since the holiday season ended, our phones have been ringing with questions on ereaders, tablets, and other electronic devices. Not quite sure what to do with that new device? The library offers a large selection of free ebooks and audiobooks with our Media On Demand service. Our Adult Reference staff can answer your questions about your new device and help you learn how to use our free downloadable audio and ebook program. Check the computer class schedule on page 10 for offerings on how to use ereaders and download ebooks.

Thanks, Friends!

New and additional indoor signage was installed in the library in December.

Thank you to the Friends of the Tinley Park Public Library for purchasing this signage.

Focus on Rapid Research: Genealogy

Looking up your family tree? The library offers some excellent resources for genealogy research. We offer a professional version of Ancestry.com (accessible in the library only) for looking up census data, military records, church and land records, passenger lists, and more. For researching census data at home 24/7, try using Heritage Quest. For obituaries and news articles, try Newsbank, ProQuest Newsstand, and ProQuest Chicago Tribune (Historical). Our Reference staff is always happy to assist you with these tools. Click the Rapid Research tab on our home page or call the Reference Desk at 708.532.0160, ext. 1

Discover different shades of GREEN during Earth Month

We invite you to have fun and learn more about the environment during Earth Month. We've planned a ton of activities in April for people of all ages, including a concert, programs, and interactive activities. Adults will learn how to grow pesticide-free herbs on April 9, as well as how to compost food scraps and coffee grounds on April 17. The whole family will enjoy an environmental concert by Sandy Lucas, complete with recycled instruments on April 14. Teens will have a chance to create cool clothing from recycled items at Team Build-It on April 17 and tweens will also have a chance to make a craft from garbage at TAG's April 20 program. Please check the newsletter or our online events calendar at tplibrary.org to learn more about our Earth Month programs and registration information.

Summer reading

Hungry for summer reading? It's never too early to start looking forward to our super Summer Reading Program. This year's focus is on food. Dates are Monday, June 4 through Saturday, August 4. Summer Reading aboard the Bookmobile will run from Monday, June 4 through Thursday, August 2. For more information on fun programs, cool prizes, and activities for all ages, stay on the lookout for the summer newsletter that will arrive in your mailbox the third week in May.

Maggie R. Fortenberry is a former Miss Alabama whose life as a Realtor leaves much to be desired. Maggie's business is in trouble, and her dream to have the perfect husband and 2.5 children has been sidetracked. She hatches a plan to solve her problems . . . forever. Meeting Room A.

April 11

State of Wonder

by Ann Patchett

Pharmaceutical researcher Dr. Marina Singh sets off into the Amazon jungle to find not only the remains of a colleague who recently died under mysterious conditions, but also a research team that no one has heard from in two years. An emotional, vivid, and atmospheric novel that's hard to put down. Meeting Room A.

May 9

Emily, Alone

by Stewart O'Nan

Set in contemporary Pittsburgh, this novel tells the tale of Emily Maxwell, an elderly widow struggling to cope in a changing world. O'Nan's writing transforms the ordinary into the extraordinary by illuminating life's small moments with detail and insight. Meeting Room A.

Tuesday Tomes Selections – 7:30 p.m.

March 27

A Dirty Job

by Christopher Moore

Shop owner Charlie Asher discovers he's been recruited to collect souls of the newly dead and pass them on to those in need. Strange? But things get even stranger when people who should be dying, don't. Meeting Room A.

April 24

My Name is Mary Sutter

by Robin Oliveira

Set in Civil War era Washington, D.C., this book tells the story of Mary Sutter, a headstrong midwife who struggles, against all odds, to become a surgeon. A compelling historical novel sure to appeal to fans of Charles Frazier's Cold Mountain and Robert Hicks' The Widow of the South. Young Adult Program Room.

May 22

Battle Hymn of the Tiger Mother

by Amy Chua

In January 2011, the Wall Street Journal ran excerpts from Amy Chua's memoir under the incendiary headline "Why Chinese Mothers Are Superior." The article and book, which describe Chua's draconian methods for raising hyper-successful children, generated a storm of controversy. Decide for yourself whether the book is intended as a how-to manual or a tongue-in-cheek memoir. Meeting Room A.

Partners In Crime

Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m.

Our mystery and suspense thriller discussion group. For more information about Partners In Crime call Fran Heinemann at 708.532.0160, ext. 5691.

Iron Lake

by William Kent Krueger

Former Chicago cop Cork O'Connor's life is in shambles, both personally and professionally. Moving back to his hometown in Minnesota, he is drawn into the apparent suicide of a former high-ranking judge. Cork's investigation explodes into a mind-jolting case of conspiracy, corruption, and scandal.

April 3

Murder on K Street: A Capital Crimes Novel

by Margaret Truman

Arriving home from a fund-raising dinner, Illinois Senator Lyle Simmons discovers his wife's brutally bludgeoned body. And like any savvy politician with presidential aspirations, his first move is to phone his attorney, Phil Rotondi, because a murdered wife isn't an asset in most campaigns. As Rotondi digs deep into the circumstances surrounding the crime, he discovers a tangled web of greed, deceit, and betrayal.

May 1

Chasing Darkness: An Elvis Cole Novel

by Robert Crais

Los Angeles PI Elvis Cole's investigation allowed accused murderer Lionel Byrd to walk free. Now, three years later, a shocking discovery brings to light conflicting information, and as he searches for the truth, Elvis realizes he may have unwittingly been an accomplice to murder.

Third Thursdays Reading Club

will hold its first quarterly meeting at 7:00 p.m. Thursday, March 15. With 2012, the group has assumed a new direction, discussing books made into films. Clips of the movie will be shown at the discussion, which will focus on similarities and differences between the written and filmed versions of each selection. Seasonal refreshments will be served.

March 15

In Her Shoes

by Jennifer Weiner

Estranged sisters Maggie (the brain) and Rose (the beauty) Feller think they have nothing in common except their shoe size. Circumstances conspire to reveal that they're more alike than they'd ever imagined. Their journey to reconciliation is a rollicking romp involving a Botox addict, a pug with attitude, and wildly unsuitable boyfriends.

Come discuss the book and movie versions of this chick-lit classic! Young Adult Program Room.

Ereader and Computer Classes 18+

Free Ereader Classes in April

Still wondering how to download free library books to that ereader you received as a Christmas gift? Mark your calendar for ereader demonstration classes the library will offer in April. These classes are designed to show you how to borrow books from Media on Demand, our ebook lending service. Registration for ereader classes begins at 9:30 a.m. Saturday, April 7. Class size is limited to eight. Registration for all classes must be done in person at the Checkout Desk.

If you own an ereader, feel free to bring it with you to class.

Kindle Classes: Length: 90 minutes; Fee: Free; Classes: 4/11 at 6:30 p.m. or 4/25 at 2:00 p.m.

Nook, Sony, and Kobo Classes: Length: 90 minutes; Fee: Free; Classes: 4/19 at 10:00 a.m. or 4/26 at 10:00 a.m.

Computer and Internet Classes in May

Class size is limited to six. Class registration begins at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday, May 5. Registration for all classes must be done in person at the Checkout Desk.

Mousercise Class teaches those with little or no experience how to use a mouse. If you have not used a mouse, we recommend taking this class before any other. Length: 60 min.; Fee: Free; Class: 5/7 at 2:00 p.m.

Introduction to PCs is for computer beginners. Among the skills covered are use of the power switch, start button, computer keyboard, and control panel; creating, saving, and finding files; and multitasking with Windows. Length: 2 hours; Fee: $10; Class: 5/9 at 6:30 p.m.

Beginner's Internet teaches you how to find and evaluate information on the World Wide Web. Length: Two 2-hour sessions; Fee: $20 (covers two 2-hour sessions) Class: 5/10 & 5/17 at 10:00 a.m.

Introduction to Email shows you how to register for an email account, check your inbox, create an address book, and open attachments. Length: 2 hours; Fee: $10; Class: 5/14 at 6:30 p.m.

May is Love Your Pet month on the Bookmobile and we are up to our paw prints in fun!

For every donation you make to P.A.W.S. Animal Shelter on the Bookmobile, fill out a paw print to show your support. Paw prints will be displayed on board throughout the month of May.

We are proud to serve as an authorized drop-off point for donations to P.A.W.S. Animal Shelter in Tinley Park. P.A.W.S. is in need of liquid laundry detergent, Dawn dish liquid, bleach, paper towels, dryer sheets, and hand sanitizer.

Monetary donations are also greatly appreciated and will be accepted in the library as well.

P.A.W.S. belongs to the Science Diet Shelter Program. Using the same food daily is easier on the animals' digestive systems. Donations of dry dog or cat food other than Science Diet are sent to rescue groups and other shelters.

Whether your pet is furry, fluffy, scaly, feathery, or something in between, you will find lots of interesting information on our display shelves to celebrate Love Your Pet month. Visit the Bookmobile soon!
