

YOUR NEXT READ

Memoirs that Inspire

Educated : a memoir

by Tara Westover

Traces the author's experiences as a child, describing her participation in her family's paranoid stockpiling activities and her resolve to educate herself well enough to earn an acceptance into a prestigious university and the unfamiliar world beyond. 1st Floor 920.72 WESTOVER, TARA

A dream called home

by Reyna Grande

The nationally best-selling author of The Distance Between Us describes her harrowing early experiences as a first-generation Latina university student and aspiring writer who navigated racism and poverty to build a life for her family. 1st Floor 973.046872 GRANDE, REYNA

Beauty in the Broken Places

by author Pataki, Allison

The author describes how her healthy 35-year-old surgical resident husband suffered a rare and life-threatening stroke that placed everything they had worked for in jeopardy, a struggle she navigated by writing daily letters to her husband that helped her make sense of challenges and fall in love with him all over again.

1st Floor 616.81 PATAKI, ALLISON

Heartland

by Sarah Smarsh

A journalist born into a Kansas farming family relates her experience growing up among the working poor, discussing the impact of intergenerational poverty on individuals, families, and communities. 1st Floor 305.569 SMARSH, SARAH

In pieces

by Sally Field

The actress shares insights into her difficult childhood, the artistic pursuits that helped her find her voice, and the powerful emotional legacy that shaped her journey as a daughter and mother 1st Floor 791.092 FIELD, SALLY

Shoe dog

by Philip H. Knight

The founder of Nike shares the story of the company's early days as an intrepid startup and its evolution to one of the world's most iconic and profitable brands, offering insights into how he envisioned a company that would be run in atypical ways. 1st Floor 338.092 KNIGHT, PHILIP

When Breath Becomes Air

by Paul Kalanithi

An Ivy League-trained, award-winning young neurosurgeon describes how, he explored the dynamics of his roles as a patient and care provider, the philosophical conundrums about a meaningful life and how he wanted to spend his final days. 1st Floor 616.99424 KALANITHI, PAUL

Brain on fire

by Susannah Cahalan

A dramatic account of a young New York Post reporter's struggle with a rare brain-attacking autoimmune disease traces how she woke up in a hospital room under guard with no memory of baffling psychotic symptoms, describing the last-minute intervention by a brilliant doctor who identifies the source of her illness.

1st Floor 616.832 CAHALAN, SUSANAH

The Glass Castle

by Jeannette Walls

The award-winning memoir, discusses her family's nomadic upbringing from the Arizona desert to Las Vegas to Appalachia--during which her siblings and she fended for themselves while their parents outmaneuvered bill collectors and the authorities. 1ST Floor 362.82092 WALLS, JEANNETTE

Love Warrior

by Glennon Doyle Melton

The author traces her journey of self-discovery after the dissolution of her marriage, revealing how she found healing by rejecting gender standards and refusing to settle for a "good-enough" life. 1st Floor 306.893 MELTON, GLENNON DOYLE