

YOUR NEXT READ

Memoirs that Inspire

Updated 11-30-2020

Updated 11-30-2020

I'll Be Seeing You

by Elizabeth Berg

The New York Times bestselling author, in this moving memoir, shares her experiences caring for her parents in their final years, charting the passage from the anguish of loss to the understanding that even in the most fractious of times, love can heal.

1st Floor 306.874 BERG, Elizabeth

Home Work

by Julie Andrews

In a follow-up to the critically acclaimed Home, the beloved performing artist reflects on her Hollywood career and the creations of three of her most iconic films, Mary Poppins,

1st Floor 791.092 Andrews, Julie

All You Can Ever Know

by Nicole Chung

A Korean adoptee who grew up with a white family in Oregon discusses her journey to find her identity as an Asian American woman and a writer after becoming curious about her true origins.

1st Floor 362.734 CHUNG, Nicole

It's Trevor Noah

by Trevor Noah

The comedian traces his coming of age during the twilight of apartheid in South Africa and the tumultuous days of freedom that followed, offering insight into the farcical aspects of the political and social systems of today's world

1st Floor 791.092 NOAH, Trevor

Believe It

by Jamie Kern Lima

"From struggling waitress to billion dollar entrepreneur, I couldn't put the book down! Believe IT is for every person who knows deep down inside they're made for more, and they just need to learn how to believe!" —David Bach, #1 New York Times bestselling author of Smart Women Finish Rich and The Latte Factor

More than enough

by Elaine Welteroth

The award-winning journalist and Project Runway judge chronicles her efforts as editor-in-chief of Teen Magazine to infuse social consciousness into the magazine, sharing recommendations for women about living life on one's own terms.

1st Floor 070.92 WELTEROTH, Elaine

Stray

by Stephanie Danler

From the best-selling author of Sweetbitter comes a memoir of growing up in a family shattered by lies and addiction, and of one woman's attempts to find a life beyond the limits of her past.

1st Floor 813.6 DANLER, Stephanie

Sounds like Titanic

by Jessica Chicchitto Hindman

Relates how the author, an aspiring violinist, left her Appalachian home to pursue a career in classical music in New York, only to discover that the ensemble she has joined pretends to play over CD recordings, and describes her subsequent identity crisis and disillusionment.

1st Floor 787.2092 HINDMAN, Jessica

Face It

by Debbie Harry

Complemented by rare photos, a memoir by the iconic performance artist traces seven decades in the entertainment industry while discussing her professional collaborations, struggles with addiction, near-escape from Ted Bundy and Blondie alter-ego.

1st Floor 781.66092 Harry, Debbie

What is a girl worth?

by Rachael Denhollander

This book is the inspiring true story of Rachael's journey from an idealistic young gymnast to a strong and determined woman who found the courage to raise her voice against evil, even when she thought the world might not listen.

1st Floor 796.44092 Denhollander, Rachael